

Average marks of student surveys

Lecturer Ako Sauga

Statistics (TES0020, bachelor course) spring 2016, number of respondents 71, response rate 67.62%.

Question	Avg. mark
The methods (teaching methods and aids) used were relevant	4.54
The lecturer was well-disposed (polite, kind, attentive, etc.) towards the students	4.6
I found the organisation of the subject easy to comprehend	4.59
The study materials were well-suited for acquiring the subject	4.49
Stationary study took place according to schedule	4.79
The volume of independent work was reasonable	4.5
The lecturer made sure the students were not cheating	4.72
The evaluation was based on the listed evaluation criteria	4.72
Completing the course resulted in the learning outcomes presented in the course description for me	4.4
All in all, I was satisfied with the lecturer	4.46
Average	4.58

Econometrics (TES1040, master course), autumn 2016, number of respondents 42, response rate 71.19%.

Question	Avg. mark
The methods (teaching methods and aids) used were relevant	4.85
The lecturer was well-disposed (polite, kind, attentive, etc.) towards the students	4.93
I found the organisation of the subject easy to comprehend	4.93
The study materials were well-suited for acquiring the subject	4.95
Stationary study took place according to schedule	5
The volume of independent work was reasonable	4.78
The lecturer made sure the students were not cheating	4.89
The evaluation was based on the listed evaluation criteria	4.95
Completing the course resulted in the learning outcomes presented in the course description for me	4.84
All in all, I was satisfied with the lecturer	4.92
Average	4.9